DefExpo2020 Discussion Contest on Social Media

(From 24th Jan to 31st Jan 2020)

1. Contest is open to all Indians residing in India. People who wish to participate in contest have to register their details on official website of DefExpo. The page has all the details pertaining to the DefExpo-2020 Discussion Contest on Social Media in detail.

2. There is no participation fee.

3. Eligibility Criteria. Open to all Indians, age no bar and should have a Twitter Account

4. Guidelines for submission of Post on the Subject of Discussion.
   (a) The view on the subject should be posted before 5 pm of 31st Jan, 2020.
   (b) Must have #DefExpo2020 in the caption.
   (c) Participant must follow Twitter@defexpoindia
   (d) Tag five social media friends in the tweet.
   (e) Three Retweets/Reposts/share of any DefExpo posts is a must.

5. Rewards. “Two entry passes to visit DefExpo-2020 between 05-07 Feb 2020”.

6. Registration Form. Participants are to fill up their name, email id, country, mobile number (verified by OTP), Identity type and number.

7. Other Terms and Conditions.
   (a) Contest starts from date of release of tweet on the subject and closes on 31st Jan 2020.
   (b) Subject/Topics of Discussion:
      (i) Is self-reliance in cyber vulnerable systems a necessary condition to protect our National Critical Infrastructure?
      (ii) Sukhoi-30 MKI deployment at South India – Thanjavur Air Base – Securing Indian Ocean Region.
      (iii) Defence corridors as Job creators.
      (iv) AK–203 Joint Venture – Boost for Make in India.
      (v) Induction of Tejas into Air force : Futuristic Platform of IAF.
      (vi) Dhanush Development: Showcasing indigenous technology capability for producing superior Artillery Guns.
      (vii) Digital Transformation of Defence: Role of AI and Robotics.
      (viii) Is Make in India through Indigenous Research & Development the optimum way to achieve self-reliance in Defence?

   (c) One can participate in the contest by posting the reply on official twitter handle of DefExpo-2020 with hashtag #DefExpo2020 during the period of the contest. Participants are required to register on www.defexpo.gov.in. Once registered, participant will get a unique number on their registered email/mobile number, which should be mentioned while posting their view on the subject of discussion.
(d) One best Discussion/View on each subject selected by a panel will be disclosed on 03.02.2020 and winners announced on DefExpo 2020 website.

(e) Each winner will be awarded with two entry pass and it may be collected by the winner in person from DefExpo2020 venue in Lucknow on 05 Feb 2020. Contact person for collecting Award is Shri Deepak Tiwari (Mob. No. 9911901979, email id – indiccontent@gmail.com)

(f) Winners will be intimated on the DefExpo website.

(g) Entries must not contain any objectionable or inappropriate content.

(h) Source of content/facts must be made available to Department of Defence Production on request.

(j) Department of Defence Production, MoD does not accept any liability for the publication of unlawfully reproduced content.

(k) All entries will be adjudged on the quality of comments / discussion backed by facts.

(l) An entry found unsuitable can be rejected by Department of Defence Production, MoD without giving any reasons for the same.

(m) Officials and relatives of officials involved in conduct of DefExpo 2020 are exempt from participating in the contest.